THREE CHURCH WEDDINGS FOR SOCIETY TO-DAY

McAllister-Townsend and Peahody-Hadden Marriages Take Place on Long Island.

RISHOP'S DAUGHTER BRIDE

Wiss Lee Winchester, of Arkan. sas, to Become Wife of J. E. Montgomery Here-Harvest Dance To-night.

Miss Audrey Fairlie Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicoli Townford McAllister this afternoon in the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City. Long Island. Mrs. Edward Nicoll Townsend, jr., will be matron of honor, desmaids wil be Miss Lydia Sabury Slade, Miss Franklin Engs, Miss Adelaide Travis, Miss Mary Allison Swan, Miss Ruth Emory and Miss Catherine Gansevoort Townsend. Carroll H. Dawson will be best man, and the ushers will W. Lee Gwynne, Prescott Berdell. Malcolm Hunter, Frederick W. Gwynne, Hirst Broom and Edward Nicoll Town-A small reception will follow the home of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend,

The marriage of Miss Anita Peabody, daughter of Charles A. Peabody, to Hamiton Hadden, of this city, will take place o-day in the little church at Cold Spring Harber, Long Island. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the atry home of Mr. Peabody, near Cold

Miss Evelyn Lee Winchester, daughter of Eishop James R. Winchester, of Little Rock, Ark, will be married this morning in the Church of Zion and St. Timin West 57th street, to James Edward Montgomery, of Chicago. The ceremy will be performed by the bride's father, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Lubeck, the rector. After a wedding trip to Panams, Mr. Montgomery and his bride will make their home at the Hotel Plaza, in It was intended originally have the wedding later in the fall at the bride's home, but as the members of her family are now in New York it was decided to have the marriage celebrated It will be a very small and quiet Among her presents are a rope of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and a pearl brooch, an heirloom, from her grand-

Mrs. Richard Stevens, of Castle Point. Hoboken, will give a dance on December at the Hotel St. Regis for her debutante daughter, Miss Elsie Stevens. Her guests will number about 150. Miss Stevens was

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish will give a harvest dance to-night at her country place, at Garrison, N. Y. Several professional

The autumn ball of the Tuxedo Club will be held on Friday evening, November 7, at the clubhouse, Tuxedo Park, under the auspices of the governors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Polk will return to town from Lawrence, Long Island, early next month.

Mrs. P. A. Valentine, who spent the next month. summer at Danforth Lodge, Oconomowoc, Wis has returned to the city opened her house, No. 8 East 69th street. for the winter.

Mrs. Frederick O. Beach has arrived in the city from Locust Valley, Long Isiand, and is at the Hotel Vanderbilt.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Fitch and Miss Fitch, of No. 38 West 56th street, are at the Hotel Gotham.

The afternoon dances organized by Miss Florence V. Doane will be resumed at the Waldorf-Astoria on Mondays and Thursdays, beginning Monday, October

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Falconer, Bruce Falconer and Miss Louise Falconer. who spent a few weeks at Briarcliff Lodge, have returned to their home, No. 701 Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Ladd have arrived in the city from Short Hills, N. J., and are at the Hotel St. Regis.

Miss Frances Montague Ward is the guest over the week end of Miss Eva Ingersoll Brown, daughter of Mrs. Walston Hill Brown, at Dobbs Ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. George Legg returned to

for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montague Ward have moved from No. 27 West 67th street to No. 70 East 77th street.

MRS. WILSON AT CAPITAL President's Family Reunited in

the White House.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, October 17.

At the White House.

The President arose early this morning and by 7 o'clock was at the Union Station to meet Mrs. Wilson, who returned to Washington from New Hampshire. With her were Miss Wilson and Miss Eleanor Wilson. The President and his family had breakfast immediately after their arrival and then all made a tour inspection of the White House from the top floor, where many changes and additions have recently been made, to the basement and garden.

Miss Jessie Wilson remained in New York with her cousin, Mrs. Howe, but will join her parents in a short time. Miss Wilson and Miss Eleanor Wilson attended to-night the opening of the House of Play established by the Junior Department of the Dramatic League in Washington.

The Cabinet.

The Secretary of State will return to Washington on Sunday from a short visit West. His return will complete the Cabinet circle, all the members and their families having come back for the

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs Daniels took a large party down the Potomac to-day to witness the target practice of the battleships of the Atlantic fleet off the Virginia Capes. With them were Mrs. Bryan, the Secretary of War and Mrr. Garrison, the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield, the affair. The bride will have no attendants. Misses Burleson, daughters of the Postmaster General, and Mrs. Burleson. Frank Houston, son of the Secretary of Agriculture, and Mrs. Houston, Miss Miss Winchester is at No. 100 Ethel Bagley, sister of Mrs. Daniels, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Frederick D. Roosevelt. The party will return to Washington Sunday even-

MRS. RALPH BATES DORT.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson have leased the dwelling at 19th and F streets, in the old part of the extensively entertained at Newport last city, a block from the house owned and occupied by the late Chief Justice Fuller and now belonging to Mrs. Alice Copley Thaw Whitney. They will take posses sion on Monday.

The Diplomatic Corps.

The French, Russian and Japanese Ambassadors are the only diplomats of that rank in Washington just now, but most of the Ministers have returned to the capital for the winter. The German Ambassador will sail for New York next week, and the Austro-Hungarian Ambas-sador and Mme. Dumba will sail for this country early in November. The British Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice are still at Dublin, N. H., and probably will not return before the first of

IN THE BERKSHIRES.

IBy Telegraph to The Tribune. Lenox, Oct. 17 .- Ex-President and Mrs. William H. Taft and Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hilles started this morning from Dalton for Rutland, Vt., where Mr. Taft will address a meeting of the Congregational Church to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Sloane gave a dinner to-night for their house party, week, beginning Tuesday, December 23. which includes Charles Allen Munn, Representative Frederick H. Gillett and Miss Mary S. Ames, of North Easton, Mass.

have returned to New York. George W. Folsom, Frederick S. Delafield and George E. Turnure have Issued invitations for a dinner and dance at the Lenox Club on Saturday evening, Oc-toher 25.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cochran, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Chauncey S. Truax and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Robbins, of New York, arrived at the Curtis Hotel to-day. Mrs. John A. Logan, jr., and Miss Edith Logan have returned to New York.

AT NEWPORT.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune 1 Newport, Och 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Quentin Jones will leave here on Monday for New York for a short stay, betown yesterday and are at the St. Regis fore going to their winter home at Mia-Mrs Vanderbilt is expected at the Breakers on Sunday. Mrs. French Vanderbilt has returned to Newport from a visit in Boston. Mrs. James P. Kernochan closed her season here to-day, and left for New

from Eur Newport

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Zoological Park and the Van Cortlandt Park Museum.

Cortlandt Park Museum.
Electrical Show, New Grand Central Palace.
Public exhibit of the Clearing House for Mental Defectives, Metropolitan Building, 236 street and Madison avenue, all day. Meeting of the Male High School Teachers' Association, New York University, 10:30

Address by Miss Mary L. Jobe at reunion of the Associate Alumnae of Normal College, Meeting of the Association of Men Principals of Manhattan and The Bronx, West End. 125th street and Seventh avenue, 6:30 p. m. Dinner of the United Real Estate Owners' Association of Manhaitan, Hotel Astor, 7

p. m. Entertainment of the Japanese Mutual Aid So-ciety, Carnegle Lyceum, 8 p. m

County Associations, Lexington Opera House, evening Public lectures of the Board of Education, 8:15
p. m., Manhattan: Public School 184, 116th street, west of Fifth avenue, "Political and social Conditions of Old," Dr. Jacob Salwyn Schaplro; Museum of Natural History, 77th street and Central Park West, "Our Learning Years," Professor Samuel C. Schmucker; Public Library, No. 121 East Eith street,
"Padua, the Seat of the First University,"
Dr. Brune Roselli; Public Library, No. 506
West 145th street, "How They Live in Germany," Professor Ernst Richard; St. Bartholomew's Hall, No. 206 East 42d street,
"Electric Arc Lighting," w. Wallace Ker;
"Electric Arc Lighting," w. Wallace Ker;
"Young Men's Christian Association Hall, No.
5 West 125th street, "Nitrogen and Its Compounds," Dr. Arthur C. Nelsh.

HELEN WILSON MARRIED

Became Bride of Ralph Bates Dort, of Albany, Wednesday.

One of the notable weddings of the week was that of Miss Helen Adams Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Wilof the Transfiguration, New York City.

Rev. Dr. George C. Houghton. Edward best man. A reception, followed by dancing, was held at the Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Dort will make their home

Aborns Will Present "Tiefland"

Sooner than Announced.

tury Opera Company at the Century Mrs. H. V. R. Kennedy, C. Perry of October 25 and "Louise" for the week of Decem- Milburn, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Davis, cember 9; "The Bohemian Girl," Decem- throp, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer. ber 16; "Carmen" for the Christmas and Massenet's "Manon" for the New Year's week, beginning December 30. Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Atwood, who have been guests of Mrs. James R. Jesup. | January 13; "Martha" for the week of | January 20 and "Faust" for the week of

On Tuesday evening, February 3, "Tiefland" will be sung. It was originally set for the week of February 17.

OPERA SINGERS ARRIVE TO-DAY.

Pasquale Amato, barytone, and Leon Rothler, basso, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will arrive to-day on La

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The first American tour of this country of Alice Lloyd, the English comedienne, under the direction of William Morris, will October 27. Mr. Morris has surrounded Miss Lloyd with a road organization which will present a programme of twen-York.

Mr. and Mrs. Griswold Thompson.
Mrs. description of twenty to the bonds he held of the Brokaw Flotter ty-two individual features. After the properties after the ty-two individual features. After the ty-two individual features. After the properties after the ty-two individual features. After the properties after the ty-two individual features. After the properties after the properties after the ty-two individual features. After the properties after the bonds he held of the Brokaw Fischer, and the properties after the proper

A new dramatic version of Goldsmith's "The Vicar of Wakefield" has been com-pleted by Louis N. Parker, author of "Joplay with a view to fitting Cyril Maude, the English actor who will play a preliminary season in a repertoire at Wallack's Theatre beginning November 2, in the character of Dr. Primrose.

The Albany Day Line will give an outing for its employes on the afternoon of October 22 at the Hippodrome. Two hundred and fifty men and women will then have an opportunity to see the wonder of Brokaw. The lot at No. 7 East 79th the Hippodrome.

Irish ball, under auspices of the United Irish County Associations, Lexington Opera House, evening.

Will dissolve at the end of the engagement in Philadelphia, two weeks from to-night, evening. with the company of one hundred, including Ching Ling Foo and his associates. Plans for Polaire and Lady Constance have not been completed, but will be an-

MAKES HUNT BALL GAY

Man, Who Likes Outlook, and Ironmaster, for Mitchel.

LAIRD SAD FOR SULZER

Patronesses Include Many Well Says Deposed Governor Has At-Known Members of the Hunting Set-Several of Them Give Dinner Parties.

[From The Tribune Correspondent.] Garden City, Long Island, Oct. 17.-With dancing in hunting or polo or other costume suggesting outdoor sports, the fancy costume ball given at the Garden City twenty-one hours. Hotel to-night by the members of the George Jay Gould, accompanied by Mrs. Long Island hunting set presented the Gould and their daughters Edith and

Color Scheme as Meadow

Brook Colonists Dance.

DECORATIONS ELABORATE

The large ballroom of the hotel had been made especially attractive for the occasion. Members of the colonies about Westbury, Wheatley Hills, Meadow Brook cut flowers for decorations. Scores of Meadow Brook colonists had ing many guests, and later drove over for would give them a fair chance, the ball. The array of costly automobiles ing night of the opera season in Man- curities. hattan.

The patronesses, including many of the rs of the Meadow Brook colony. were Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., Mrs. W. Crit- Gould. tenden Adams, Mrs. August Beimont, Mrs. J. A. Albertson, Mrs. William A. Atala Thayer, Mrs. Oliver W. Bird, Miss May Bird, Mrs. Lloyd S. Bryce, Mrs. Charles R. Scott, Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Scott Burden, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Willard D. Straight, Mrs. Middleton S. Burrill, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. Egerton L. Winthrop, jr., Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, Mrs.

Among the large number of subscribers, including many of the members of the Meadow Brook Hunt and Rockaway Huntng clubs, the Piping Rock Club and the various colonies about Great Neck, Hempstead, Rosyln, Wheatley Hills and Oyster Bay, were Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. n, of Pittsburgh, to Ralph Bates Dort, Morgan, Miss Marion Hollins, Miss Emily on Wednesday in the Church Randolph, Miss Edith Mortimer and party of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Peabody The ceremony was performed by the Miss Flora Whitney, Miss Helen Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Alexander Coyle, of Pittsburgh, was the Mr. and Mrs. S. A. W. Baltazzi, Mrs. J. E. S. Hadden, Miss Frances Hadden, Hamilton Hadden, Miss Anita Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Bird, Miss Clair Bird, Miss Breeze, Mr. and Mrs. Egerton Winthrop. NEW SCHEDULE AT CENTURY Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pulltzer, Mr. and Mrs. H. Roger Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Morawetz. atic schedule which was announced at the beginning of the season, of the Century Opera Company at the C Next week "Madam Butterfly" will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey, Mr. presented, as announced. For the week and Mrs. Seward Cary, Jay Coogan, jr., will be given; Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Griswold, the "Lucia di Lammermoor" will be the opera Misses Mary and Laura Canfield, Mr. and thought the Kaiser had the right idea for the week of November 4, "Samson and Mrs. Henry F. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. about temperance in that he was not a Delilah" for November 11, "Il Trovatore" Harry I. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. George for November 18, "Thais" for November Milburn, Miss Nancy Steele, Devereaux ber 2. "La Boheme" will be given De- Miss Muriel Winthrop, Bronson Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, Mrs. Clarence Dolan, the Misses Dolan,

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph N. Ellis, Philip Boyer, Carroll Hobart Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicoll Townsend, Ir., Berry Wall, Miss Elise Ladew, Harvey S. Lagew, Mrs. Emily Ladenburg and many of the other members of the various social colonies of Long Island.

ISAAC V. BROKAW ESTATE DIVIDED AMONG FAMILY

Stock in Clothing Firm Left in Trust for Sons-Gift Outright to Daughter.

The will of Isaac Vall Brokaw, founder Provence. Mr. Amato comes from of the firm of Brokaw Brothers, who Busetto, where he sang at the special died on September 29 at his country home Verdi centenary celebration season under at Elberon, N. J., was filed yesterday in the direction of Arturo Toscanini. It is the Surrogates' Court. The estate, valued said that he made a brilliant success in at several million dollars, is left to the Falstaff. Mr. Amato has a number of concert engagements, which he will fill prior to the opera season.

Amato has a number of members of his family. His stock in Brokaw Brothers is left in trust to Howprior to the opera season. ard C. Brokaw, a son, the income and dividends to be paid to the three sons as follows: Irving Brokaw, three-tenths; Howard C. Brokaw, fourt-tenths and George Brokaw, three-tenths. Upon the death of the sons and the termination of begin at the Royal Theatre, in The Bronx, the trust the principal is to go to their children. Mr. Brokaw gave outright to his sons the bonds he held of the Brokaw Brothty-two individual features. After the ers' corporation, and requested they hold

To his wife the testator gave for life the family home at No. 1 East 79th street, his house at Elberon with the contents, seph and His Brethren," "Disraeli" and "Pomander Walk." Mr. Parker wrote the Fifth avenue and 4th street. The remaining two-thirds of the income is to be divided among the four children. Howard C. Brokaw received for life the property at No. 984 Fifth avenue. At his death it goes to his children. Irving Brokaw received the property at No. 985 Fifth avenue on similar terms. George T. Brokaw is to receive the house at No. 1 East 79th street at the death of Mrs. America in viewing the new spectacle at street is left for life to Mrs. Fischer, and a trust fund of $250,000 is created to be ciety. Carnegie Lyceum, 8 p. m.

Address by Joseph A. Goulden at the meeting of the Business and Professional Men's League, Long Acre Building, Broadway and 42d street, evening.

The constance Stewart-Richardson and Lady Constance Stewart-Richardson will dissolve at the end of the programment of the sons and one to be held in trust for will dissolve at the end of the programment.

VAN WOERT ESTATE TO KIN.

Francis G. Van Woert, a retired leather merchant, who died January 18, 1913, left an estate appraised at $658,891. Mr. Van Woert left no will and the entire estate passed to Jacob Van Woert, Harriet G. Do it! At once! If you have failed to register, do it now. Thousands of citizens have neglected their duty. YOUR vote is needed to prevent a repetition of the Sulzer scandal in the municipal government. To vote you must register. Last day.

passed to Jacob Van Woert, Harriet G. Van Woert, his brothers and charlotte Van Woert, his brothers and charlotte Van Woert, his brothers and charlotte Van Woert, Harriet G. Van

SOCIETY, 300 IN COSTUME, GOULD, CANAL OPTIMIST; CARNEGIE FOR FUSION

Garden City Hotel Sees Bright Mauretania Brings Railway

tractive Qualities - Praises Kaiser and President and Defends "Wee Drappie."

The Cunard liner Mauretania, laden with a large complement of tardy home nearly three hundred of the society folk comers, arrived here yesterday from Liverpool after a passage of four days and brightest spectacle seen here in many a Gloriz, returned after a vacation of sev-

and Hempstead sent over many of their tems of this country, and thought the ferns, potted flowers and an abundance of opening of the Panama Canal would be a help rather than a hindrance to railway business. He said he thought the govdinner parties at their homes, entertain- ernment in its investigation of railroads investigations were the things that kept in front of the hotel resembled the open- the public from investing in railroad se-

"I think the proposed increase of 5 per cent in railroad freight rates will meet with the approval of Mr. Brandeis, the government's investigator," said Mr. "He is an able lawyer and a fair minded man and I think he will see that the increase is justifiable. It will take a but as soon as the increase becomes a fact increased prosperity may be looked for. I know the railroads will be able to Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mrs. Ralph show that they own property of much Pulitzer, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Arthur greater value than their capitalization value all the time.

"The Panama Canal will help the railroads. It will increase trade for shipping and railroad industries, and I think the Edwin D. Morgan, Mrs. Victor Morawetz, roads will get their share of the benefits Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt and Mrs. Payne to be derived from the opening of the new waterway." Andrew Carnegie, accompanied by opening of his peace palace at The Hague and met the German Emperor.

The Laird of Skibo had many things on the tip of his tongue and he talked freely when the subjects were suggested for He expressed much personal sorhim. row for the death of Mayor Gaynor. He was also instrumental in forcing the whom he described as "an honest man, whose memory can never be shamed." Speaking of mayors, he thought John Purroy Mitchel, the fusion candidate for that office, was an honest man-so much so he thought he'd rugh right away from the steamer and register, so he could vote for him on Election morn. Mr. Carnegie summed up Mr. McCall as an honest judge, and let it go at that. Mr. Sulzer and his tribulations with Tammany and the Assembly were a thorn in the Laird's side. He felt a great pity for the deposed Governor, who, he said, had and still has many attractive qual-Francis Oulmet, the young American the Scots that America had produced a Beadleston, Miss L. Louise Fleitmann, laddle who could beat them at their own Church, Sixth avenue and Washington After extolling the virtues of the Ger-total abstainer.

doctor ordered it."

bition. Mr. Wilson, he said, was second Savings at the time of his death. The to no President the United States ever firm became Josiah Macy's Sons, and was cial had, and that his attitude on Mexico and dissolved in 1878, when William H. Macy, the Panama Canal tolls made the country ir., formed a partnership with John H proud of him and commanded the respect of the civilized world. Mr. Roosevelt, he thought, was a triffe erratic at times.

singer, returned from Paris because of He was vice-president of the Hospital for

A. Benson, the first secretary of the American Embassy at Rome, returned on and the Museum of Natural History. his way to Washington, where he is expected to explain certain features of the charges brought against Post Wheeler, the secretary of the embassy, in connec-Italy free of duty.

Canada. London, Oct. 17 .- The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, accompanied by their younger daughter, Princess Patricia, left Kreamer Gano, a druggist and prominent tion to see the royal party off.

CONFIRMS HAVEMEYER DIVORCE. [By Telegraph to The Tribune ]

vorce of J. Craig Havemeyer, a nephew of the founder of the Havemeyer sugar expended under her direction for the interests, Mrs. Maude Thorburn Backus, widow of the former District Attorney of Kings County, N. Y., at her summer home to-day not only confirmed the reality of the divorce, but admitted that she is now in the midst of preparations to marry Havemeyer.

AGAINST ALIEN LAND LAW. Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 17.-Governor

Tramwell has decided that an alien land for several months. law would be in conflict with the state constitution, which expressly forbids it, to pass a law similar to California's.

LAURENCE J. CALLANAN.

L. J. CALLANAN DEAD Known as the Editorial Grocer

of Vesey Street. Laurence J. Callanan, the editorial grocer of Nos. 41 and 43 Vesey street, is He died at St. Vincent's Hospital on Thursday, following an operation from which he failed to rally. Mr. Callanan was born in Ireland seventy-eight years ago. He was in the habit plication for divorce has been filed in of placing in front of his store large signs with pithy comment on politics, both municipal and national. He also published it could not get consideration before the "Callanan's Magazine." in which he discussed current events as well as groceries. Baldwin, Mrs. Richard Trimble, Miss long time to get things straightened out. Thousands of passersby in Vesey street read his editorials. The last one he wrote great surprise even among those who grunting. Put your shoulder to the wheel to make it a success. No bill can stop the in the summer that there were indicawelfare and prosperity of this country." and that this property is increasing in Mayor Gaynor was a frequent target of Callanan's bulletins.

His activity in municipal affairs was not confined to editorials. Through his efforts nue, Newport, and while both have been the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Com- out a great deal during the season, either pany was prevented from seizing Battery Park as a train yard. Mr. Callanan also was a pioneer in the fight against sidewalk encroachments. He began work in a grocery store at

No. 41 Vesey street as a boy, being paid 50 cents a week. He was boarded by his employer above the store. All his working life was spent in the same store. A case which he carried to the Court of Appeals, Callanan agt. Gilman, has been cited as a precedent for thirty years.

removal of the railroad tracks from Fulton and Vesey streets. In politics he was a Democrat, but he fought the organization at times, and was one of the committee of seventy which brought about the election of Mayor He was one of the first advocates of legislation for pure food and for the selling of food by net weight.

Strong.

Mr. Callanan was a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Produce Exchange, the Board of Trade and Transportation, the Merchants' Association, the Catholic Club and the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. He was at one time president of the Retail Grocers' Association. was an enthusiastic yachtsman, and took part in the regattas of the New York, Atlantic and Brooklyn Yacht clubs. He left a wife and a son. Mr. Callanan's funeral will be held at St. Joseph's Place, on October 20.

WILLIAM H. MACY, JR

William H. Macy, jr., who died at his home in Harrison, N. Y., yesterday morn-"You know I take a 'wee drappie' of ing, was for many years a conspicuous Scotch whiskey myself every night," said figure in the business circles of New Mr. Carnegie. "It does me good and the York. He was born in this city in 1836, and began his business career in the President Wilson was the next subject house of Josiah Macy, his father, who put up on the Carnegle pedestal for exhi-Pool, which was dissolved in 1885, when both partners retired from active business. Mr. Macy then became a resident of Robert W. Chanler, of Dutchess County, Harrison, N. Y., where his only surviving the former husband of Lina Cavalieri, the child, Mrs. George F. Chamberlin, lives. the illness of his brother, Lewis S. Chan- Ruptured and Crippled, a trustee of the United States Trust Company and a member of the Metropolitan Museum of Art

FRANCIS MARION EPPLEY.

[From The Tribune Correspondent.] Orange, N. J., Oct. 17.-Following tion with his importation of gasolene into paralytic stroke, Francis Marion Eppley, a lawyer, who organized the company Among others on board were Mr. and and built the Orange Crosstown Rail-Mrs. Hamilton Fish, Mr. and Mrs. George way and who also was prominent in other Lauder, Mrs. John G. Milburn, Mr. and traction developments, died early to-day Mrs. Honoré Palmer, Mrs. E. H. Outer- at his home in Oakwood Court, this city. bridge and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Wins- In July Mr. Eppley suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, but he soon recovered. Mr. Eppley was born in York, Penn. sixty-eight years ago, and received his CONNAUGHTS QUIT LONDON early education in York County Academy. He joined the United States Coast and Sail To-day for Duke's Post in Geodetic Survey, and later was a civil

FRANK KREAMER GANO. Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 17.-Frank

London to-day for Liverpool, whence they in city affairs for several years, died towill sail for Canada on board the Empress day. Mr. Gano was born in Trenton of Britain. The Duke will resume his forty-six years ago. He was a Republiduties as Governor-General on his arrival. can in politics and a member of the city Walter H. Page, the American Ambas- executive committee. He was vice-presisador, was among the many distinguished dent of the Oceanic Fire Company No. 1. personages who went to the railroad sta- Mr. Gano was the organizer of To Halon Castle, No. 73, Knights of the Golden Eagle. In Masonry Mr. Gano ranked high, being one of the past masters of Long Branch Lodge No. 78. He was also a member of Standard Chapter, No. 35, Marshfield, Mass., Oct. 17.—Questioned R. A. M., and of Adah Chapter, No. 5 as to her knowledge of the reported di- Order of Eastern Star. He was also a member of the Consistory of the First Reformed Church and of the Chamber of Commerce. He is survived by a wife, two daughters and one son.

ALBERT DODGE SMITH.

[From The Tribune Correspondent.]
Orange, N. J., Oct. 17.—Albert Dodge Smith, senior member of the firm of the Albert D. Smith Company, New York, and for more than forty years a prominent resident of Orange, died at his home. No. 255 Centre street, to-day. He had been ill with a complication of diseases Mr Smith was born in Andover, Mass.

about seventy years ago. His parents and that no special session of the Legis- moved to New York when he was a child. lature will be called for that purpose.

Representative Clark recently called on the Governor to convene the Legislature to pass a law similar to California's.

moved to New York when he was a chiral moved to New York. He became engaged in the New York. He became engaged in the drygoods business and later embarked in business for himself as a drygoods commission merchant.

MRS. R. W. GOELET MAY SUE HUSBAND, IS REPORT

Gossip at Newport of Marital Troubles Between the Couple Is Revived Here.

LAWYER REFUSES TO DENY

Friends Profess to Believe That Differences Will Not Go So Far as the Divorce Court.

Gossip got busy again yesterday with enewed rumors of trouble between Mrs. Robert W. Goelet and her husband. Although there was a complete lack of definite confirmation from either Mr. or Mrs. Goelet, or their legal representatives, there was at least one refusal to circumstantial enough to relate that Mrs. Goelet was the one who was planning to take action, and that it would be in the form of a suit for divorce

One who is familiar with affairs at the Newport summer colony said last night there had been more or less gos-the Superior Court at Newport as yet. Should any such application be filed now was: "The tariff bill is now a law. Stop profess to believe that such an outcome is improbable. It was a matter of comment tions that the domestic relations between the couple were not as they should be. They have been living at Eastbourne Lodge, Kay street and Rhode Island ave-

> Mrs. Goelet gave a number of dinners and luncheons in the summer. She was one of the cottagers who entertained Grand Duke Michaelovitch, of Russia. while he was at Newport. However, it was quite a generally accepted fact that Mr. Goelet took no part in the entertainments given by his wife.

> pected to stay there until the end of the nonth. Mrs. Goelet is said to spend much of her time in painting, under the tutorship of Elijah Baxter, in the studio of Henry Clews, jr., on the Clews estate. near Bailey's Beach.

> When Samuel Untermyer, Mrs. Goelet's attorney, was asked yesterday whether there was any basis for the rumors of an reports. I refuse, in fact, to have anything to say about the matter.'

not Mrs. Goelet is a client of ours now. We do not consider it proper to discuss our clients' affairs with any one. But for your private information I will say that "I would not care to say whether or a thing." Friends of the couple are said to believe that the trouble will not go so far as divorce proceedings, but will result in

BALAKLAVA HERO DIES

Sir G. Wombwell Had 2 Horses Shot Under Him in Charge.

London, Oct. 17.-Sir George Orby Wombwell, the last of the officers who took part in the charge of the Light Brigade at the battle of Balaklava in October, 1854, died to-day at the age of eighty-one. He was a lieutenant in the 17th Lancers during the Crimean War, and in the course of the famous charge

DIED

BENNERS—On October 17, Miss Annah Benners, daughter of the late John Ben-ners, of St. Thomas, D. W. I., and sister of Mrs. Oscar F. G. Megle. Funeral at her late residence, No. 424 Rockaway ave., Boonton, N. J., Sunday, 5 p. m. Train leaves Hoboken 4:15 p. m.; return-ing leaves Boonton 8:16 p. m.

BENNET—At Washington. D. C., on Wednesday, October 15, 1913, Arthur Ferris Bennet, son of the late Arthur Ferris Bennet and Gertrude Bennet Davis, in the 8th year of his age. Interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, New York, on Saturday, October 18, 1913, on arrival of train leaving Grand Central Depot at 10.35 s.m.

SMITH—At Orange, N. J., Friday, October 17, 1913, Albert Dodge Smith, son of the late Asa Dodge and Sarah A. Smith. Funeral service will be held at his late residence, No. 255 Center st., Sunday, October 19, at 3 o'clock, on arrival of the 2:16 train from Hoboken via D., L. & W. R. R. Please kindly omit flowers.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY.

233d St. By Harlem Train and by Trolley.

Office, 20, East 227 St., N. Y.

MAIN OFFICE—No. 154 Nassau street.
UPTOWN OFFICE—No. 1364 Broadway, of any American District Telegraph Office.
HARLEM OFFICE—No. 457 East 125th street. No. 263 West 125th street and No.
219 West 125th street.

sip at Newport in some quarters and that there was a possibility of divorce proceedings being started in the Goelet family. However, many persons familiar with the affairs of the Goelets refused to give these rumors credence. It was learned definitely that no ap-court until December. However, if an application was filed later, it was said, it would create no motoring or driving with their children, it caused remark that they almost invariably appeared in public separately.

The Goelet summer home is still open, and Mrs. Goelet and her children are ex-intended divorce proceeding, he said: "I refuse either to deny or affirm these

Mrs. Goelet has been represented in other matters previously by a member of the firm of Krauthoff, Harmon & Mathewson, of No. 55 Wall street. A member of the firm last night said to a Tribune eporter:

I know nothing of any trouble between the Goelets and have never heard of such ### some sort of a settlement.

two horses were killed under him.

Benners, Annah.
Bennert, Arthur F.
Erving, Cornella V. R. Smith, Albert D.

ERVING-Suddenly, on Friday, October 17, 1913, at her residence, No. 17 West 50th st., Cornella Van Rensselaer, wife of John Erving and daughter of the late William P. and Sarah Rogers Van Rensselaer. Funeral services will be held at St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square and 16th street, on Monday, October 29, at 10:30 a. m.

tober 29, at 10:30 a. m.

FREEMAN—At Jericho, Long Island, on fifth day, tenth month, 16th, 1913, Gula A. Freeman, wife of William V. Freeman, and daughter of the late Richard and Phebe W. Albertson. Funeral services will be held at the residence of her sister. Mrs. Samuel J. Underhill, at Jericho, Long Island, on first day afternoon, tenth month, 19th, at 3 o'clock. Carriages will meet train arriving at Hicksville at 2 o'clock.

MACY-On Friday, October 17, at his late residence, Harrison, N. Y., William H. Macy, jr., in his 78th year. Notice of funeral hereafter.

CEMETERIES.